HOMELESSNESS IS NO LAUGHING MATTER.

In fact it harms your health, your kids' future and your chance of a job. If you sleep rough your life span can be halved.

It costs society too: temporary homes cost a fortune, A&E departments, courts and jails get filled with people trapped in repeated cycles of homelessness or substance misuse.

But with the right help at the right time people can be helped to escape these problems. Lives change. People find new confidence and skills. They reconnect with their families and their real sense of themselves. They can turn their backs on homelessness for ever.

But too many still wait for the chance. In this, the fourth richest country in the world, 5,000 sleep rough each year, 50,000 live in hostels waiting for a home, 100,000 families still don't have a permanent home.

The UN Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights sets out the universal right to 'an adequate standard of living, including adequate food, clothing and housing.' We need to make that real. We need this Labour government to commit to ending homelessness.

A new drive is needed. This needs real vision. It needs real will.

Can you help us?
